

PRESIDENT'S AWARD EVALUATION FORM

Candidate: _____

Poster Title: _____

Abstract #: _____

Session: _____

Judge: _____

CONTENT (60%):

	Maximum score	Actual score
--	---------------	--------------

Title - Title clear, concise, and appropriate	5%
--	----	--

Abstract - Clarity, style and content of information in relation to what is on the poster	5%
--	----	--

Introduction - Contains adequate background, a clear rationale and objectives	5%
--	----	--

Scientific Development - Is it clear what was done and how it was done?	10%
--	-----	--

- Are the approaches used and the methods appropriate for the study?	10%
--	-----	--

- Are the results presented in a clear and straightforward fashion? Is the amount of information presented appropriate? Does all the data presented support the objectives?	10%
---	-----	--

- Does the discussion link the results to the conclusions?	5%
--	----	--

Conclusions - Is the 'take home' message clearly stated? Do the conclusions flow from the data presented? Is it clear what the significance of the findings are?	10%
---	-----	--

PRESENTATION (40%):

For a poster to be effective, the presentation must be concise, appealing and informative.

- Is the amount of material presented appropriate?	10%
--	-----	--

- Was the poster readable? Does the size of the text and graphics allow for easy reading?	10%
---	-----	--

- Does the presentation flow well from the Introduction through to the Conclusion? Was the material well organized?	10%
---	-----	--

Is the overall presentation pleasing, that is, is it "eye-catching"? Is this a poster that you would be likely to stop, examine, and discuss with the author?	10%
---	-----	--

TOTAL		_____
--------------	--	-------